The year is 1755 and it's Carnival season in Venice, time for the masquerade ball.

A chance for rich and poor, old, and young to come together; everyone to be equal for a night. But when everyone is hiding their identity, it can be hard to know who you are talking to.

The question on everyone's lips is who is the figure in red? Seen conversing with several guests but no one admits to knowing them.

A glass smashes and the figure is found dead on the floor.

Who were they? And why did someone want them dead? It's your job to find out...

CHARACTER GUIDE

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION:

Male, The General's eldest son and heir. He will inherit everything upon his father's death. He's quite wild, enjoys partying and drinking, and spends a lot of time gambling. He is known through most of Venice as a bit of a womanizer. He's charming, charismatic and can seduce anyone from nuns to duchesses... He's only managed to escape jail due to his father's influence and having someone else to blame.

GETTING TO KNOW THE PLAYERS

INTROS

SAY HELLO!

Read this text word-for-word or paraphrase it in your own words as you introduce yourself to everyone. Don't add any information, just slang or casual lan-guage suitable for your character.

Well hello there. I'm Captain Anover but you can just call me Cas, Anover. I'm The Stallion tonight. Quite fitting really. I'm handsome, strong, elegant and can ride all night. Father would prefer me to marry and settle down but where's the fun in that? I enjoy partying, drinking and gambling far too much, I'm not meant to settle down. Girls can chase me all they want; many do but it's not usually marriage they get from me. I had a bit of a competition going on with old Red Cloak, guess I'll win it now he's dead. Not that I wasn't winning before. My conquests were in triple figures before I reached 25.

YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH THE VICTIM

All the Players have a history with the victim. Try to keep the details of your relationship to yourself—but be aware that other people may already have some idea of it!

Was a good friend of Red Cloaks. You were in the army together, before Red Cloak got bored and decided to pursue something else. You were often seen drinking and partying together and were quite inseparable. Seduction became a bit of a game between you two, and you would often compete to outdo the other, until Red Cloak decided to pursue your sister; this transgression was a step too far and severed their friendship.

GETTING TO KNOW THE PLAYERS

RUMOURS CHOOSE YOUR VICTIM

Here are things you may have observed about other characters. In your group, agree on a character you want to talk about—someone who is at the party, but preferably not within earshot.

THE COUNTESS

The Countess cast Red Cloak out of society, he was involved in some sort of incident with her son a few years ago.

THE DRAGON

Red Cloak was calling on his sister a lot last year and was seen dancing at the winter ball but then suddenly he stopped. The sister was moved to their other house outside of Venice after that.

THE LION

Red Cloak was often seen at parties and theatres with The General's son. Even The General seemed to like him and promoted his work. That stopped suddenly after the summer ball.

THE SHARK

Appealed to The Governor for Red Cloak to be arrested for immoral behaviour and severe misconduct but he never was.

THE BLACK SWAN

Was heard saying to Red Cloak this evening, "You'll not get another penny from me until you find someone suitable."

THE BLUEBIRD

She announced her engagement to Red Cloak at the summer ball. The engagement was broken off not long after.

THE MOUSE

Father was killed in a duel a few years ago. Word on the street was that it was against Red Cloak.

THE PHOENIX

Has a secret child – some rich gent knocked her up and refused to marry her, so she left Venice in disgrace.

THE DOG

Was overheard talking to Red Cloak earlier and saying, "How could you do this to her? Hasn't she suffered enough?"

THE STAG

Was heard saying to Red Cloak this evening, "She was in Venice all this time and you kept it from me? What do I pay you for?"

THE CAT

Overheard saying to Red Cloak, "I should kill you for what you've done to my family. That money was all we had!"

THE HARE

Overheard talking to Red Cloak this evening saying, "I'll kill you myself if you even dare think of telling The General."

THE UNICORN

Was engaged to Red Cloak not long after the spring ball but called it off quite suddenly; it left her quite broken up, she nearly died of grief.

THE TURTLE

Very close with The Unicorn and threatened Red Cloak to a duel over her honour and heart ache.

THE SPARROW

Paid Red Cloak to accompany her to a few dances because she couldn't get a date any other way.

THE DOVE

Was in love with Red Cloak, they were supposed to get engaged, she was talking about it at the winter ball, but it never happened.

THE WOLF

Was heard saying to Red Cloak, "The plan has changed. I need my money back."

THE FOX

Was nothing but a farmer's son, but then suddenly, acquired a lot of wealth under very suspicious circumstances.

THE WEASEL

Was seen talking to Red Cloak, he handed him a bag of gold and hurried away.

SPREAD THE DIRT

Use your improvisational skills to share your rumour about that character with everyone in your group. Just as in real life, some people will already know your dirt—that doesn't mean you can't talk about it! The Host may ask you to move on to a different group, to share rumours with and about new people. Feel free to pass on or combine items you've heard from other Players. The Host may end the Round before you have finished, so get to the juicy stuff early!

BITE YOUR TONGUE!

If you hear someone spreading a rumour about you, pay attention but don't feel you need to answer. You'll have a chance to respond in the next Round.

MOTIVES

Every Player answers ONE question posed by another character. Ignore any references to characters who are not at this party.

QUESTIONS TO ASK THE OTHER CHARACTERS

When it is your turn, choose ONE question to ask another Player and read it aloud. Eventually, all the characters listed in that row will be asked that same question.

ASK: THE BLACK SWAN | THE CAT | THE WEASEL

"Scout Potential matches" sounds like a desperate cry for marriage. Financial security isn't an issue for some people here, but it is for you. Did you pay Red Cloak to help find a wealthy spouse?

ASK: THE COUNTESS

You have all the power in this society, and you cast Red Cloak out of it. Did you swear to kill him if he ever set foot in your house again?

ASK: THE STAG

Did you pay Red Cloak to find someone for you? Who was in Venice "all this time"?

ASK: THE DRAGON

Red Cloak was seen at previous parties paying a lot of attention to your sister. Was there something going on there that you really didn't like?

ASK: THE LION

What happened to make you quite suddenly and publicly withdraw your support and funding for Red Cloak?

ASK: THE DOVE | THE BLUEBIRD | THE UNICORN

You were in love with Red Cloak once, weren't you? Did he break your heart too? He seems to have done that to a lot of people.

ASK: THE SPARROW

"Attend the Social" – it is fairly clear that that relates to you. Did you pay Red Cloak to accompany you to some dances?

ASK: THE HARE

What didn't you want Red Cloak to tell The General?

ASK: THE MOUSE | THE TURTLE

"Challenge to a duel." You are one of the few people here with a known history of duelling. Did you want Red Cloak to challenge someone?

ASK: THE PHOENIX

Rumour has it that you left Venice because you have an illegitimate child. Was Red Cloak the father?

ASK: THE WOLF

What plans changed? Was it you who asked Red Cloak to find "suitable lodgings?"

ASK: THE FOX

Red Cloak had a reputation for dirty dealing. Did he help you gain your wealth? A simple farmer's son would not normally achieve the fortune you have.

ASK: THE SHARK

You appealed for Red Cloak's arrest many times. Why?

ASK: THE DOG

Who were you referring to when you spoke to Red Cloak earlier? Who's suffered enough?

ANSWERS FOR WHEN YOU ARE QUESTIONED

When another Player asks you, read the appropriate answer.

IF YOU ARE INNOCENT

My family are very well respected, there's a lot of pressure put on me as the oldest son to act a certain way. It can be quite suffocating. Red Cloak gave me an outlet. We'd go to the club together and maybe the gambling and drinking houses. We had some fun times. He was a bit of an artist, father even funded some of his projects. However, when he started paying attention to my sister, father thought he was getting a bit too close and cut him off. Red Cloak's response to my father's snubs was to try and seduce my sister. I stopped seeing him at all after that.

IF YOU ARE GUILTY

My family are very well respected, there's a lot of pressure put on me as the oldest son to act a certain way. Red Cloak gave me an outlet. We'd go to the club, the gambling and drinking houses. We had some fun times. He was a bit of an artist, father even funded some of his projects. However, when he started paying attention to my sister, father thought he was getting a bit too close and cut him off. Red Cloak's response to my father's snubs was to try and seduce my sister. As you can imagine, I wasn't too pleased about that.

METHOD

Every Player answers ONE question posed by another character. Ignore any references to characters who are not at this party.

QUESTIONS TO ASK THE OTHER CHARACTERS

When it is your turn, choose ONE question to ask another Player and read it aloud. Eventually, all the characters listed in that row will be asked that same question.

ASK: THE COUNTESS | THE MOUSE

So, you blame Red Cloak for the death of your relative. Is that why you invited him here to kill him? Why poison though? Why not challenge him to a duel? It's a fair fight then.

ASK: THE SHARK | THE DRAGON

Maybe the letter refers to Red Cloak's threats to your family's reputation? Had he succeeded in seducing your sister? That would make you want him dead, and poison is a very subtle way to kill someone.

ASK: THE BLACK SWAN | THE SPARROW | THE STAG

That letter is a definite threat. Did you decide to kill him tonight because he refused to give your money back for the job he failed to complete?

ASK: THE LION

I can imagine you being quite angry at Red Cloak. Had he succeeded in seducing your daughter? That would make you want to kill him.

ASK: THE DOVE | THE UNICORN | THE BLUEBIRD

Poison can be quite a painful way to die. The kind of pain you might want to inflict on someone who hurt you. Maybe his letter was trying to manipulate you into forgiving him, but you'd already decided to make him suffer?

ASK: THE PHOENIX | THE HARE | THE FOX

That letter just screams blackmail. You were one of the few people who Red Cloak could blackmail. Is that why you decided to poison him?

ASK: THE DOG | THE TURTLE

Red Cloak had hurt and threatened people that you care about. Maybe you decided to get justice on him for the way he treated them?

ASK: THE WEASEL

Did you decide to poison Red Cloak to get rid of him because he threatened to expose your secret? As a man of God that would certainly be a moral dilemma for you.

ASK: THE WOLF | THE CAT

You don't have a lot of money yourselves, yet you gave quite a bit to Red Cloak. Maybe you decided to kill him when he refused to give it back when you needed it?

ANSWERS FOR WHEN YOU ARE QUESTIONED

When another Player asks you a question, read the appropriate answer.

IF YOU ARE INNOCENT

Poison is a very subtle way to kill someone yes, do I look like the kind of person to do anything subtle? Had he succeeded in seducing my sister then trust me his death would have swiftly followed, and you can guarantee it wouldn't be subtle. We are soldiers, a public duel is more my style. Luckily, he didn't succeed though and I had no reason to kill him. There are plenty here who did have a reason though.

IF YOU ARE GUILTY

Poison is a very subtle way to kill someone yes, it's virtually impossible to detect in certain liquids. My family were lucky though and, he didn't succeed in seducing her. He broke her heart though and his conduct towards my family was unforgivable.

OPPORTUNITY

Every Player answers ONE question posed by another character. Ignore any references to characters who are not at this party.

QUESTIONS TO ASK THE OTHER CHARACTERS

When it is your turn, choose ONE question to ask another Player and read it aloud. Eventually, all the characters listed in that row will be asked that same question.

ASK: THE SPARROW | THE BLACK SWAN | THE WOLF | THE STAG

You hired Red Cloak to do a job for you, he failed, and you asked for your money back, but he didn't give it to you. Were you trying to play nice to get him to trust you so you could kill him?

ASK: THE COUNTESS | THE MOUSE

It's clear that you were angry at Red Cloak; you blamed him for the death of your relative. It'd be quite easy for you to arrange to meet him somewhere to kill him. This is your house.

ASK: THE LION | THE DRAGON | THE SHARK

Admit it; you wanted revenge on Red Cloak for trying to seduce your relative and nearly ruining your family's reputation. You care a lot about your position in society. Did you kill Red Cloak to protect your reputation?

ASK: THE HARE | THE PHOENIX | THE WEASEL | THE FOX

So Red Cloak found out things you didn't want anyone to know about. He was blackmailing you. It would make sense that you'd want to kill him for that. Did you trick him into meeting you here tonight?

ASK: THE TURTLE | THE DOG

You seek justice for the wrongs you feel have been done to the people you care about. Did you write that note to Red Cloak to draw him here to make him pay?

ASK: THE DOVE | THE UNICORN | THE BLUEBIRD

The note was written in an elegant hand. Female perhaps? They say "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." Did you plan to poison Red Cloak tonight because he broke your heart?

ASK: THE CAT

A widow could hardly be a threat to him, so maybe Red Cloak thought he can get more money from you? Perhaps you saw his ulterior motive and wanted to trick him into coming here tonight so you could kill him?

ANSWERS FOR WHEN YOU ARE QUESTIONED

When another Player asks you a question, read the appropriate answer.

IF YOU ARE INNOCENT

Of course, I wanted revenge, he was a friend and he betrayed me; it's less to do with my family's reputation. I've never cared that much for that. It's the fact that my friend tried to seduce my sister, that's just not something you do. His motives were purely selfish, he didn't like that my father withdrew his support and so wanted to get revenge on us. We are military men in the age of duelling, do you really think we'd do something as subtle as poison if someone wrongs us?

IF YOU ARE GUILTY

Of course, I wanted revenge, he was a friend and he betrayed me; it's less to do with my family's reputation. I've never cared that much for that. It's the fact that my friend tried to seduce my sister, that's just not something you do. His motives were purely selfish, he didn't like that my father withdrew his support and so wanted to get revenge on us. As Military men, do you really think we'd allow it?

FINAL STATEMENTS

When the Host calls on your assigned letter, share the appropriate Final Statement:

IF YOU ARE INNOCENT

Red Cloak was a good friend of mine and I'm sorry it ended the way it did, but my sister doesn't deserve what happened, she believed he loved her but he just wanted her money and revenge on my father. Had someone not killed him I probably would have, but as it is, I didn't. It's a shame he turned out the way he did, we had some good times, and he was very talented, my father even paid for him to get his work performed but he got too cocky and started thinking he was equal to us. In the end, my father decided to blame him for leading me down the wrong path, he thinks I drink and gamble too much, while Red Cloak was still alive, he could blame him, but it wasn't his fault. I've not been the best example of a man and father has threatened to disinherit me if I don't curb my wild ways. I guess I should probably calm down and look for a wife of my own, any takers? We wouldn't want my younger brother to inherit instead of me, he'd be no fun at all.

IF YOU ARE GUILTY

Yes, I killed Red Cloak, he betrayed me and tried to ruin my sister's good name. Normally, I'd have challenged him to a duel, but there's no guarantee I could win, he was an excellent duelist himself. I had to try something else.

Red Cloak knew how important money and power is to my family and he knew there would be consequences for going against them. He couldn't really expect me to just let this offence slide.

Arsenic is very easy to get hold of, it's found in everyday items. It's also invisible when added to liquid. The only clue might be an almond smell; however, The Countess' favourite food is sugared almonds and there was a whole plate full of them on the terrace and so anyone would assume the smell came from there.

Red Cloak would recognise my hand, I've practised very hard to make sure my writing looks elegant and reflects that of a respectable member of the gentry and I knew Red Cloak would meet me as we still had so much unfinished business to discuss.

I made sure I'd spoken to the servants to bring two drinks of the finest wine out onto the terrace for me. While everyone was busy dancing in the main hall, no one noticed me slip the powder into the goblet. It only takes a few seconds for it to disappear in the liquid and so when Red Cloak joined me, and I was apologetic and full of smiles, he suspected nothing and took the drink.

Once he'd taken the first sip, I knew it'd only take a few minutes until it kicked in and so I claimed I needed to use the privy, told him to enjoy the drink and I'd be back in a few minutes and slipped quietly back into the hall.

I was in the hall when he actually collapsed, and I feigned surprise with everyone else when the death was announced.

I'm not sorry he's dead, although I'd have preferred a duel if I knew I could win. Oh well, many wanted Red Cloak dead so I don't think anything will happen to me, he got what he deserved.
