THE CAT

Masquerade Mystery

The year is 1755 and it's Carnival season in Venice, time for the masquerade ball.

A chance for rich and poor, old, and young to come together; everyone to be equal for a night. But when everyone is hiding their identity, it can be hard to know who you are talking to.

The question on everyone's lips is who is the figure in red? Seen conversing with several guests but no one admits to knowing them.

A glass smashes and the figure is found dead on the floor.

Who were they? And why did someone want them dead? It's your job to find out...

CHARACTER GUIDE

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION:

Female, recently widowed, she was the 2nd wife of a reasonably wealthy gentleman who unfortunately had a son from a previous marriage who inherited the family estate and most of the fortune – leaving her and her children with no home and a seriously reduced income. They've temporarily moved in with her older sibling who married quite well and has quite a good living and a large estate; however, she doesn't want to live on their charity and so is desperate to marry her children off to wealthy people and make sure they're settled.

GETTING TO KNOW THE PLAYERS

INTROS

SAY HELLO!

Read this text word-for-word or paraphrase it in your own words as you introduce yourself to everyone. Don't add any information, just slang or casual language suitable for your character.

Well, hello there. I'm masquerading as The Cat today. I'm little, I'd like to be independent but I'm aware that I need other people to support me sometimes. I'm recently widowed and being my late husband's 2nd wife means that I don't get anything because his son from his 1st marriage gets everything and he has given us nothing. Thankfully, my siblings are better people than him and have taken me and my children into their home. It's good to be out in society again and I'm hoping my eldest will soon be married; it'll be good to see my children settled that's all I really want out of life.

YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH THE VICTIM

All the Players have a history with the victim. Try to keep the details of your relationship to yourself—but be aware that other people may already have some idea of it!

Your husband gave quite a bit of money to Red Cloak; it was only meant to be a small loan. He was supposed to invest it and double it. The income was supposed to support you and your children after his death, but Red Cloak gambled it and lost it. That money could have made a huge difference in the types of marriages your children could go for.

RUMOURS

CHOOSE YOUR VICTIM

Here are things you may have observed about other characters. In your group, agree on a character you want to talk about—someone who is at the party, but preferably not within earshot.

THE COUNTESS

It was The Countess who originally cast Red Cloak out of society. Apparently, he was involved in some sort of incident with her son a few years ago.

THE DRAGON

Red Cloak was secretly calling on his sister a lot last year and was seen dancing at the winter ball but then suddenly he stopped. The sister was moved to the other house after that. Wonder why?

THE LION

Red Cloak was often seen at parties and theatres with The General's son. Even The General seemed to like him and promoted his work. That stopped suddenly after the summer ball. Wonder why?

THE STALLION

Used to hang out a lot with Red Cloak. It was well known they were friends and would often brag to each other about their conquests. This stopped not long after the summer ball when he danced a lot with his sister. Did something more happen there?

THE SHARK

Appealed to The Governor to have Red Cloak to be arrested for immoral behaviour and severe misconduct but he never is.

THE BLACK SWAN

Was heard saying, "You'll not get enough penny from me until you find someone suitable." Wonder what that means.

THE BLUEBIRD

Was engaged to Red Cloak once, announced it to your friends at the summer ball. The engagement was broken off though. What's going on there?

THE MOUSE

Their father was killed in a duel a few years ago. Word on the street was that it was actually against Red Cloak. Motive for murder maybe?

THE PHOENIX

She has a secret child – some rich gent knocked her up and refused to marry her so she left Venice in shame and disgrace.

THE DOG

Was overheard talking to Red Cloak earlier and saying, "How could you do this to her? Hasn't she suffered enough?"

THE STAG

Was heard saying to Red Cloak this evening, "She was in Venice all this time and you kept it from me? What do I pay you for?"

THE HARE

Was overheard talking to Red Cloak this evening she said, "I'll kill you myself if you even dare think of telling The General."

THE UNICORN

Was engaged to Red Cloak not long after the spring ball but called it off quite suddenly; it left her quite broken up, she nearly died of grief.

THE TURTLE

Secretly in love with The Unicorn actually threatened Red Cloak to a duel for her affection and honour. Maybe he couldn't wait.

THE SPARROW

Paid Red Cloak to accompany her to a few dances because she couldn't get a date any other way.

THE DOVE

Was in love with Red Cloak, they were supposed to get engaged, she was talking about it at the winter ball, but it never happened.

THE WOLF

Was heard saying to Red Cloak, "The plan has changed. I need my money back."

THE FOX

Was nothing but a farmer's son, but then suddenly, acquired a lot of wealth under very suspicious circumstances.

THE WEASEL

Was seen talking to Red Cloak, he handed him a bag of gold and hurried away.

SPREAD THE DIRT

Use your improvisational skills to share your rumour about that character with everyone in your group. Just as in real life, some people will already know your dirt—that doesn't mean you can't talk about it! The Host may ask you to move on to a different group, to share rumours with and about new people. Feel free to pass on or combine items you've heard from other Players. The Host may end the Round before you have finished, so get to the juicy stuff early!

BITE YOUR TONGUE!

If you hear someone spreading a rumour about you, pay attention but don't feel you need to answer. You'll have a chance to respond in the next Round.

MOTIVES

Every Player answers ONE question posed by another character. Ignore any references to characters who are not at this party.

QUESTIONS TO ASK THE OTHER CHARACTERS

When it is your turn, choose ONE question to ask another Player and read it aloud. Eventually, all the characters listed in that row will be asked that same question.

ASK: THE BLACK SWAN | THE WEASEL

"Scout Potential matches" sounds like a desperate cry for marriage. Financial security isn't an issue for some people here, but it is for you. Did you pay Red Cloak to help find a wealthy spouse?

ASK: THE COUNTESS

You have all the power in this society, and you cast Red Cloak out of it. Did you swear to kill him if he ever set foot in your house again?

ASK: THE STAG

Did you pay Red Cloak to find someone for you? Who was in Venice "all this time"?

ASK: THE STALLION | THE DRAGON

Red Cloak was seen at previous parties paying a lot of attention to your sister. Was there something going on there that you really didn't like?

ASK: THE LION

What happened to make you quite suddenly and publicly withdraw your support and funding for Red Cloak?

ASK: THE DOVE | THE BLUEBIRD | THE UNICORN

You were in love with Red Cloak once, weren't you? Did he break your heart too? He seems to have done that to a lot of people.

ASK: THE SPARROW

"Attend the Social" – it is fairly clear that that relates to you. Did you pay Red Cloak to accompany you to some dances?

ASK: THE HARE

What didn't you want Red Cloak to tell The General?

ASK: THE MOUSE | THE TURTLE

"Challenge to a duel." You are one of the few people here with a known history of duelling. Did you want Red Cloak to challenge someone?

ASK: THE PHOENIX

Rumour has it that you left Venice because you have an illegitimate child. Was Red Cloak the father?

ASK: THE WOLF

What plans changed? Was it you who asked Red Cloak to find "suitable lodgings?"

ASK: THE FOX

Red Cloak had a reputation for dirty dealing. Did he help you gain your wealth? A simple farmer's son would not normally achieve the fortune you have.

ASK: THE SHARK

You appealed for Red Cloak's arrest many times. Why?

ASK: THE DOG

Who were you referring to when you spoke to Red Cloak earlier? Who's suffered enough?

ANSWERS FOR WHEN YOU ARE QUESTIONED

When another Player asks you, read the appropriate answer.

IF YOU ARE INNOCENT

I certainly did not, I have no money to give to men like him. My business with Red Cloak was from a few years ago. My late husband gave him a large sum of money when he got sick. Red Cloak was meant to invest it, keep it safe for me and my children. My late husband knew that once he was gone, his son from his first marriage would inherit our family estate and most of his money, leaving us with nothing. The money he gave Red Cloak would help but he didn't keep it, he spent it and now there's nothing left. Thankfully, I have supportive siblings who have taken us in.

METHOD

Every Player answers ONE question posed by another character. Ignore any references to characters who are not at this party.

QUESTIONS TO ASK THE OTHER CHARACTERS

When it is your turn, choose ONE question to ask another Player and read it aloud. Eventually, all the characters listed in that row will be asked that same question.

ASK: THE COUNTESS | THE MOUSE

So, you blame Red Cloak for the death of your relative. Is that why you invited him here to kill him? Why poison though? Why not challenge him to a duel? It's a fair fight then.

ASK: THE STALLION | THE SHARK | THE DRAGON

Maybe the letter refers to Red Cloak's threats to your family's reputation? Had he succeeded in seducing your sister? That would make you want him dead, and poison is a very subtle way to kill someone.

ASK: THE BLACK SWAN | THE SPARROW | THE STAG

That letter is a definite threat. Did you decide to kill him tonight because he refused to give your money back for the job he failed to complete?

ASK: THE LION

I can imagine you being quite angry at Red Cloak. Had he succeeded in seducing your daughter? That would make you want to kill him.

ASK: THE DOVE | THE UNICORN | THE BLUEBIRD

Poison can be quite a painful way to die. The kind of pain you might want to inflict on someone who hurt you. Maybe his letter was trying to manipulate you into forgiving him, but you'd already decided to make him suffer?

ASK: THE PHOENIX | THE HARE | THE FOX

That letter just screams blackmail. You were one of the few people who Red Cloak could blackmail. Is that why you decided to poison him?

ASK: THE DOG | THE TURTLE

Red Cloak had hurt and threatened people that you care about. Maybe you decided to get justice on him for the way he treated them?

ASK: THE WEASEL

Did you decide to poison Red Cloak to get rid of him because he threatened to expose your secret? As a man of God that would certainly be a moral dilemma for you.

ASK: THE WOLF

You don't have a lot of money yourselves, yet you gave quite a bit to Red Cloak. Maybe you decided to kill him when he refused to give it back when you needed it?

ANSWERS FOR WHEN YOU ARE QUESTIONED

*When another Player asks you a question,
read the appropriate answer.*

IF YOU ARE INNOCENT

My husband had quite a bit of money, unfortunately my children and I do not get most of it and my son in law has refused to part with any of it to help us out so we must make our own way in the world. We are comfortable though, my siblings support us, and my daughter will marry well. She's pretty enough. I'm upset about the business but not quite enough to do something so drastic.

IF YOU ARE GUILTY

My husband had quite a bit of money, unfortunately my children and I do not get most of it and my son in law has refused to part with any of it to help us out so we must make our own way in the world. The money is ours by right, Red Cloak should return it to us, it is not his to keep. I do not think I'm being unreasonable. My reaction is perfectly justified given the circumstances.

THE CAT ROUND 4 OPPORTUNITY

Every Player answers ONE question posed by another character. Ignore any references to characters who are not at this party.

QUESTIONS TO ASK THE OTHER CHARACTERS

When it is your turn, choose ONE question to ask another Player and read it aloud. Eventually, all the characters listed in that row will be asked that same question.

ASK: THE SPARROW | THE BLACK SWAN | THE WOLF | THE STAG

You hired Red Cloak to do a job for you, he failed, and you asked for your money back, but he didn't give it to you. Were you trying to play nice to get him to trust you so you could kill him?

ASK: THE COUNTESS | THE MOUSE

It's clear that you were angry at Red Cloak; you blamed him for the death of your relative. It'd be quite easy for you to arrange to meet him somewhere to kill him. This is your house.

ASK: THE LION | THE DRAGON | THE STALLION | THE SHARK

Admit it; you wanted revenge on Red Cloak for trying to seduce your relative and nearly ruining your family's reputation. You care a lot about your position in society. Did you kill Red Cloak to protect your reputation?

ASK: THE HARE | THE PHOENIX | THE WEASEL | THE FOX

So Red Cloak found out things you didn't want anyone to know about. He was blackmailing you. It would make sense that you'd want to kill him for that. Did you trick him into meeting you here tonight?

ASK: THE TURTLE | THE DOG

You seek justice for the wrongs you feel have been done to the people you care about. Did you write that note to Red Cloak to draw him here to make him pay?

ASK: THE DOVE | THE UNICORN | THE BLUEBIRD

The note was written in an elegant hand. Female perhaps? They say "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." Did you plan to poison Red Cloak tonight because he broke your heart?

ANSWERS FOR WHEN YOU ARE QUESTIONED

*When another Player asks you a question,
read the appropriate answer.*

IF YOU ARE INNOCENT

Red Cloak would never trust me, he knows what I think of him. Men like that have targeted my daughter before. Even without the money issues, I'd never allow him near my family to welcome him. This murder was done by someone who cared for him; maybe someone he upset. A penniless widow he robbed a few years ago wouldn't be able to convince him to attend a party and take the drink so freely like he did.

IF YOU ARE GUILTY

Red Cloak has targeted us before, more specifically my daughter but it never went anywhere. I have a lot to be angry at him about. He was a nasty piece of work. Could you blame someone for killing him? I know I wouldn't.

FINAL STATEMENTS

When the Host calls on your assigned letter, share the appropriate Final Statement:

IF YOU ARE INNOCENT

Red Cloak knew how important that money was to me and my children; it would have meant that we could support ourselves and cover my daughter's dowries too. He didn't care though and left us in a worse position than we were before. I'm not in the least bit sorry that the odious man is dead but it's not me who killed him. He'd never trust me enough to take a drink from me, not after what he did to us, taking our money like that. My only hope now is that my children marry well. I'm hoping they will though, they're good people and until then, my siblings have agreed to support us as long as we need.

IF YOU ARE GUILTY

Yes, I killed Red Cloak, he messed with my family too many times.

Red Cloak knew how important money and power is and he knew there would be consequences for going against my husband. It was made very clear to him when they agreed on the contract. He couldn't really expect me to just let it slide. Arsenic is very easy to get hold of, it's found in everyday items. It's also invisible when added to liquid. The only clue might be an almond smell; however, The Countess' favourite food is sugared almonds and there was a whole plate full of them on the terrace and so anyone would assume the smell came from there. Red Cloak would recognise my hand, I've practised very hard to make sure my writing looks elegant and reflects that of a respectable member of the gentry even if I'm not part of it. And I knew Red Cloak would meet me as we still had so much unfinished business to discuss.

I made sure I'd spoken to the servants to bring two drinks of the finest wine out onto the terrace for me. While everyone was busy dancing in the main hall, no one noticed me slip the powder into the goblet. It only takes a few seconds for it to disappear in the liquid and so when Red Cloak joined me, and I was apologetic and full of smiles, he suspected nothing and took the drink.

Once he'd taken the first sip, I knew it'd only take a few minutes until it kicked in and so I claimed I needed to use the privy, told him to enjoy the drink and I'd be back in a few minutes and slipped quietly back into the hall.

I was in here when he actually collapsed, and I feigned surprise with everyone else when the death was announced.

Maybe killing him was a bit excessive but I wanted to make sure he never did anything like that to anyone else and wouldn't hurt me or my family anymore and so I'm not sorry about it. He deserved it.
